*** turning onto Alameda Parkway (from all directions):

The National Park Service is one mile down the road on the corner of Youngfield and W. Alameda Pkwy. Parking lot entrances are located on the west side of the building on W. Alameda Drive. The main building entrance is also located on the west side.

Visitors to the building should bring government ID's. Everyone is required to wear their government ID or visitor badge at all times while in the building. Visitor's are required to leave a current government photo ID with the security staff, have packages checked and be screened through the magnetometer. Visitor's must be escorted while in the building.

If there is a building evacuation, visitor's should exit with the NPS employee they are visiting. Building safety plans are posted in all major conference rooms.
